

Master of Science in Organizational Leadership

The Master of Science in Organizational Leadership includes 30 credit hours of coursework. Organizational Leadership courses are available at Fort Leavenworth military base in Leavenworth, Kansas. The program is lockstep and should be completed in 2 semesters. Six hours of credit are afforded to students from academic work at US Army Command and General Staff College. This program is not eligible for F-1 or J-1 visas.

Admission to Master's Programs

Graduate programs are open to those who have earned a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university and whose undergraduate academic records, scores on the required standardized examination, and prior work experience indicate that they have the capability to complete the program. Completed applications are reviewed by the MBA Admissions Committee and action is taken on them periodically throughout the year. Each applicant is notified by Graduate Studies of the action taken on the application.

All applications for admission to graduate business programs must include:

1. Graduate application at <https://business.ku.edu/graduate-programs/masters-organizational-leadership/apply> (<https://business.ku.edu/graduate-programs/masters-organizational-leadership/apply/>)
2. Official transcript from each college or university attended
3. Personal statement
4. Current resume (non-military students) OR copy of Soldier Talent Profile (STP) or equivalent (military students)
5. GMAT or GRE score
6. TOEFL score, if required: <https://world.ku.edu/english-proficiency> (<https://world.ku.edu/english-proficiency/>)

All admissions to any graduate program in business are subject to and in accordance with all rules and regulations. See Admission (http://policy.ku.edu/graduate-studies/admission-to-graduate-study/?num1_1=) in the Graduate Studies section of the online catalog for more information.

GMAT vs GRE Scores

The GMAT exam is preferred. However, we will accept a GRE score and review it based on a GMAT concordance.

GMAT test waivers will be considered based on experience and academic preparation. Discuss the option with your admissions representative.
