

Master of Science in Education in Higher Education Administration

The master's degree in Higher Education Administration at KU is primarily designed for individuals preparing for administrative careers in higher education and student affairs. The program consists of 36 credit hours of integrated courses and hands-on experiences - all of which can be completed in two years.

The graduate program allows students to extend and apply their knowledge of colleges and universities, and to gain relevant experience in higher education administration. Graduate students will learn from expert scholars and practitioners, as well as fellow classmates, who bring diverse leadership experiences to the higher education administration program at KU.

Graduate students enrolled in the program, can expect to complete coursework and gain experiences that meet specific learning objectives, such as:

- Gain knowledge of organization, culture, diversity & history of higher education institutions
- Understand relevant research on student development theories and its impact on students
- Develop personal philosophy of equity in higher education grounded in scholarship
- Use literature to link higher education administration theory with practice
- Relate relevant assistantship experiences to classroom learning
- Differentiate between functional areas through hands-on internship experiences for graduate course credit
- Demonstrate proficient writing skills and mastery of APA format

Option 1: Full-time Program with a Graduate Assistantship

Students admitted to the full-time master's degree program are required to secure and maintain a graduate assistantship at KU (or another local higher education institution). Students with a 0.4% time and above graduate assistantship (GA) at KU receive a tuition waiver of up to 9 credit hours during the fall and spring semesters, health insurance*, and a stipend as part of their assistantship at KU. GA's typically work between 20-30 hours per week. Additional financial support in the form of scholarships is also available beyond assistantship compensation.

Contact the program coordinator for more information. All full-time students are required to hold a graduate assistantship during the duration of the program. Exceptions to this policy may be requested by emailing the MSE program coordinator at elps@ku.edu. Exceptions may include scholarships or other outside-sponsored funding that covers tuition (such as Fulbright or government-sponsored education).

*The employer sponsored portion of the health insurance benefit only applies to those with a 50% appointment or higher. See more information here \(https://humanresources.ku.edu/graduate-student-health-insurance/\).

The number and type of available assistantships will vary slightly from year to year, though assistantship positions are typically available in the following offices:

- KU Housing & Residence Life
- Office of Admissions
- Sorority & Fraternity Life
- Jayhawk Academic Advising
- Student Involvement & Leadership Center (SILC)
- Office of Multicultural Affairs (OMA)
- Financial Aid & Scholarships

Option 2: Part-time Program for Working Professionals

Students admitted to the part-time master's degree for working professionals are required to be employed full-time by a college or university. The program is flexible for the working professional, where students typically take 1-2 courses per semester. KU employees are encouraged to use their tuition benefits to offset the cost of the degree. For more information on KU's tuition benefits, please contact Human Resources.
