

Minor in Journalism and Mass Communications

Graduation requirements and regulations for every academic program are provided in this catalog; however, this catalog is for informational purposes only and does not constitute a contract. Degree and program requirements and course descriptions are subject to change.

In most cases, you will use the catalog of the year you entered KU (see your advisor (<http://www.advising.ku.edu/>) for details). Other years' catalogs»

Minor in Journalism and Mass Communications

The William Allen White School of Journalism and Mass Communications prides itself on providing quality education and job-building skills in a student-focused environment. This 18-credit hour program helps students learn to be effective communicators.

Admission to the Minor

Students should complete the admission application online (<http://journalism.ku.edu/undergraduate/>) at journalism.ku.edu.

Admission Requirements

- 2.5+ KU GPA (or 2.5+ transferable GPA if no KU GPA has been earned), and
- 2.5+ Journalism GPA*, and
- C (2.0) or higher in JMC 101
 - *Students with only JMC 101 can be admitted with a 2.0 Journalism GPA

Regulations

Students must earn a grade of C (2.0) or better in JMC 101, 104 and other select JMC courses to fulfill minor requirements.

Requirements for the Minor

Curriculum Requirements

A total of 18 hours is required for the minor. Students are allowed a choice of additional elective hours, not to exceed a total of 24 JMC credit hours. At least nine credit hours must be taken in residence at KU. The journalism minor requires a 2.5 GPA in journalism and a 2.5 cumulative GPA at KU.

Code	Title	Hours
JMC 101	Media and Society	3
JMC 104	Words at Work: Writing Essentials	3

Students complete 12 additional JMC credit hours, of which, at least 6 must be at the 300-level or higher. Students must meet all stated pre-requisites for each course to enroll.

Total Hours 18

If you would like to know more about the Journalism and Mass Communications minor, please contact journalism advising at jadvising@ku.edu.