

Master of Public Administration

With a unique combination of theoretically grounded course work and practical application, our Master of Public Administration (<https://spaa.ku.edu/master-public-administration-mpa/>) degree provides students with the knowledge and skills needed to lead, innovate, and problem-solve in public sector and non-profit settings.

Our Edwin O. Stene Master's program is one of the oldest and most respected programs in the United States, beginning with our local government leadership program founded in 1948. Since 1998, our tradition of excellence in educating students at the masters' level has been recognized by U.S. News and World Report with a #1 ranking in local government.

On-campus and Online Program Options

The MPA degree meets the needs of both full-time students who are looking to launch a career in public service as well as those who already have a career and are looking to accelerate it by pursuing an MPA degree part-time. The MPA degree may be obtained through course work offered at the Lawrence Campus or online through synchronous and asynchronous courses.

Local Government Management Concentration for MPA City/County Management Fellows

MPA students specifically interested in local government are invited to apply to our 2-year City/County Management Fellowship program (<https://spaa.ku.edu/citycounty-management-mpa-fellowship-program/>). Local government is the School of Public Affairs and Administration's most recognized program and has been ranked the #1 program in the country by U.S. News and World Report since 1998.

Fellows receive all of the advantages of being in the KU MPA program and also benefit from:

- Designated scholarship awards;
- Attendance to the International City/County Management Association (ICMA) annual meeting, supported by the School;
- Links to a large and welcoming professional network;
- Peer group learning and camaraderie;
- Additional experiential learning through part-time and full-time internships and other professional development opportunities.

The key distinctive feature of the Fellowship is its structure where the first year revolves around full-time intensive coursework and the second revolves around a full-time, paid internship or employment.

Admission to Graduate Studies

Admission Requirements

- All applicants must meet the requirements outlined in the Admission to Graduate Study (<https://policy.ku.edu/graduate-studies/admission-to-graduate-study/>) policy.
- Bachelor's degree: A copy of official transcripts showing proof of a bachelor's degree (and any post-bachelor's coursework or degrees) from a regionally accredited institution, or a foreign university with equivalent bachelor's degree requirements is required.
- English proficiency: Proof of English proficiency (<https://gradapply.ku.edu/english-requirements/>) for non-native or non-native-like English speakers is required. There are two bands of English proficiency, including Admission and Full proficiency. For applicants to online programs, Full proficiency is required.

MPA Admission

Please visit the MPA Admissions page (<https://spaa.ku.edu/master-public-administration-mpa/>) for complete admissions information and application deadlines.

For all applicants, a completed application includes:

1. Online Graduate Studies application (<https://gradapply.ku.edu/apply/>).
2. A nonrefundable application fee, submitted online with the application form.
3. 1 official transcript from the degree-granting college or university and any post-graduate college or university attended.
4. 3 letters of recommendation. If possible, at least 1 should be an academic reference.
5. A 750-1250-word reflective essay describing your background and career goals. Clearly indicate how the MPA degree fits those goals. Please describe how your personal background has influenced your decision to pursue a career in public service. For example, you may discuss any educational, economic, cultural, or social experiences that shape you as a candidate. If there are any academic deficiencies in your record, please address them in your statement.
6. A current résumé.
7. A writing sample that is at least 5 pages long. It should be a well-cited work in which you critically analyze (not just summarize) an issue.
8. Non-native speakers of English must meet Graduate Studies English proficiency requirements (<https://gradapply.ku.edu/english-requirements/>).

Prospective students interested learning about public administration through the scope of local government career may apply to the City/County Management Fellowship program (<http://kupa.ku.edu/city-management-fellowship-0/>). Application to this program requires an additional essay.

Students who are interested in enrolling in master's level coursework in public administration without formal admission to the graduate program are encouraged to apply for graduate non-degree seeking student status.

MPA Degree Requirements

Students may complete the MPA degree:

- On-campus in Lawrence; or
- Online via a combination of synchronous and asynchronous course work.

Eligible MPA applicants may apply for the on-campus, Lawrence modality in the Local Government Concentration for MPA City/County Management Fellows.

While completing the following degree requirements, graduate students are expected to understand and follow Office of Graduate Studies policies (<https://policy.ku.edu/office/Graduate-Studies/>) relevant to their student status and academic standing.

Core Courses

The MPA core provides students with knowledge and skills foundational to advanced educational and professional engagement in public affairs and administration fields. They provide an important underpinning for the MPA certificates and are transferable across a range of public service professions.

School of Public Affairs & Administration Graduate Certificates

The graduate certificate is a way to delve into specific areas of public administration theory and practice. They are structured to provide a condensed version of skills and knowledge to advance in particular professional fields. Certificate options and courses included in the 12-credit hour certificates include:

- City & County Management (<https://catalog.ku.edu/public-affairs-administration/city-and-county-management-gradcert/#degree requirementstext>)
- Performance Management (<https://catalog.ku.edu/public-affairs-administration/performance-management-gradcert/#degree requirementstext>)
- Public/Non-profit Management (<https://catalog.ku.edu/public-affairs-administration/public-nonprofit-management-gradcert/#certificate requirementstext>)
- Public Policy (<https://catalog.ku.edu/public-affairs-administration/public-policy-gradcert/#certificate requirementstext>)
- Urban Planning (<https://catalog.ku.edu/public-affairs-administration/urban-planning-gradcert/#certificate requirementstext>)

Students completing the MPA on-campus in Lawrence may choose between any of the above SPAA certificates to fulfill this requirement.

Students completing the MPA Online modality may complete the City & County Management or the Public/Non-profit Management graduate certificates to fulfill this requirement.

Students enrolled in the Local Government Management Concentration complete the City & County Management graduate certificate to fulfill this requirement.

Elective Course Work

Elective Courses allow students to either broaden perspective and explore other sectors of public administration or complete additional course work toward a specific sector of the public service profession. Some options for completing these credits include:

- a second SPAA graduate certificate,
- a graduate certificate outside the program with approval of the Director of Graduate Studies,
- public administration-adjacent courses in other disciplines with approval of the Director of Graduate Studies,
- specific professionalization seminars in local government (for City & County Management Fellows),
- or any PUAD and UBPL graduate-level courses in SPAA.

Local Government Management Concentration

Due to the unique degree completion schedule that allows for MPA City/County Management Fellows part- and full-time internship and employment opportunities as they complete degree requirements, students complete the following courses in the stead of electives.

Code	Title	Hours
PUAD 892	Reflections on Practice	3
PUAD 894	Professional Development Seminar I: Public Admin Contemporary Issues & Competency Assessment	3
PUAD 895	Professional Development Seminar II: Leading to Create a Culture for High Performance	3
