Bachelor of Science in Economics

Why study economics?
Economics offers the tools you need to understand our increasingly interconnected world. With these tools, you can exploit “Big Data” to explore human behavior in numerous economic settings such as labor supply, consumption patterns, health care choices and energy use. You can also examine the overall economy by assessing the links among aggregate output, interest rates, inflation, unemployment levels and international exchange rates.

Undergraduate Admission

Admission to KU
All students applying for admission must send high school and college transcripts to the Office of Admissions. Unless they are college transfer students with at least 24 hours of credit, prospective students must send ACT or SAT scores to the Office of Admissions. Prospective first-year students should be aware that KU has qualified admission requirements that all new first-year students must meet to be admitted. Consult the Office of Admissions (http://admissions.ku.edu) for application deadlines and specific admission requirements.

Visit the Office of International Student and Scholar Services (http://www.iss.ku.edu) for information about international admissions.

Students considering transferring to KU may see how their college-level course work will transfer on the Office of Admissions (http://credittransfer.ku.edu) website.

Admission to the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
Admission to the College is a different process from admission to a major field. Some CLAS departments have admission requirements. See individual department/program sections for departmental admission requirements.

Economics Majors
The economics department offers 3 degrees.

• The Bachelor of Science degree in economics is designed for the student interested in attending graduate school in economics or a closely related field. It requires the minimum amount of preparation in economics and mathematics required to be successful in graduate study. Students interested in pursuing a Ph.D. in economics are encouraged to double major in economics and mathematics.

• The B.A. or B.G.S. major in economics is designed for the majority of students who will attend professional graduate schools or enter the work force.

Total Hours: 120
1 Satisfied by completing 3 courses in each of the following categories: historical studies (requirement code HT), literature and the arts (requirement code HL), and philosophy and religion (requirement code HR).

2 Satisfied by completing 1 course in 3 of the 4 requirement codes: biological sciences (requirement code NB), earth sciences (requirement code NE), mathematical sciences (requirement code NM), and physical sciences (requirement code NP).

3 Satisfied by completing 3 courses in each of the following categories: individual behavior (requirement code SI), culture and society (requirement code SC), or public affairs (requirement code SF).

4 The department requires 6 electives for the BS degree; at least 4 courses must be 600+.

5 ECON 700 and ECON 715 are only offered in the fall semester.

Please note:

All students in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences are required to complete 120 total hours of which 45 hours must be at the Jr/Sr (300+) level.

The same course cannot be used to fulfill more than one KU Core Goal. However, overlap of a KU Core course with a major or degree-specific requirement is allowed. Overlapping is recommended to allow more opportunities to explore other majors and/or minors.

Departmental Honors

Graduation with honors in economics is limited to undergraduate majors who have fulfilled these requirements:

1. Completed all economics major requirements and achieved a grade-point average of 3.5 or above in all economics courses and an overall average of 3.25 or above at the time of graduation.

2. Completed ECON 697 Senior Research Honors.

3. Submitted and defended a research paper before at least 3 faculty members of the Department of Economics.

Honors candidates should consult the department honors coordinator before enrolling in the first semester of the senior year and file a declaration of intent form with the coordinator at that time.
