

Undergraduate Certificate in South Asian Culture

This certificate option is currently unavailable to new students

South Asia is home to the peoples and cultures of an enormous proportion of the World's population. An understanding of South Asian culture will give you the tools and open doors to exciting exchanges with the peoples in this region. KU offers regular instruction in the critical language of Hindi, and exciting study abroad programs around which would help you incorporate the South Asian Cultural Certificate into your degree plan. An undergraduate certificate in South Asian Culture allows you to incorporate a cluster of courses on South Asia to your other degree programs and enhance your knowledge of a critical and dynamic area of the world.

Requirements for the Undergraduate Certificate in South Asian Culture

12 credit hours - 9 of which must be at the 300 level or above.

Code	Title	Hours
Core Course		3
GIST 325	Peoples and Cultures of South Asia
Electives		9
These courses allow students to deepen their knowledge of the countries and issues in the region.
DANC 440	Introduction to Classical East Indian Dance
GIST 502	Advanced Topics in South Asian Studies: _____
GIST 530	Politics and Society in the Contemporary Persianate World
HIST 603	History of Tibet
HNDI 301	Topics in Hindi Culture, Language and Literature: _____
REL 106	Asian Religions
REL 365	Hinduism
REL 545	Yoga in Theory, Practice, and History
Language Courses: 3 credit hours of the following can count toward the 9 credit hours of electives requirement above.
HNDI 310	Advanced Hindi I
HNDI 320	Advanced Hindi II	