Department of History of Art

Why study the history of art?

The study of the visual arts in their historical contexts enriches our understanding of human creativity and the human condition. It provides students with the cultural literacy and critical thinking, research, and communication skills that are relevant for a variety of careers, including in art museums, galleries, and collections, as well as schools, universities, publishers, and archives. The study of art history can also provide the foundation for a career in other professions such as business, law, media, or government.

Undergraduate Programs

The curriculum introduces the student to the visual arts of the past and the present. Courses cover the arts of ancient, medieval, and early modern Europe, the Mediterranean, and the Near East, modern Europe, the United States, Africa, and East Asia, including China, Japan, Korea, and the art of Buddhism. Courses are offered in the history of photography, prints, and drawings.

Several introductory courses are offered every semester. These include 1- and 2-semester surveys in Western art (HA 100, HA 300, HA 150, and HA 151), HA 261 Introduction to Modern Art, HA 165 Introduction to Asian Art, HA 166 The Visual Arts of East Asia, HA 367 Art and Culture of Japan, HA 368 Art and Culture of China, HA 369 Art and Culture of Korea, and HA 330 Italian Renaissance Art.

Courses for Nonmajors

All courses are open to nonmajors if they have the necessary prerequisite, which in most cases is one of the introductory courses. An undergraduate advisor counsels nonmajors who need help selecting a course.

Graduate Programs

The Kress Foundation Department of Art History offers graduate art history courses in European, American, and East Asian art. Students may pursue graduate degrees in European and American art or East Asian art. Students who are interested in pursuing graduate degrees that emphasize international or transnational modern and contemporary art should follow the concentration (European and American or East Asian) that best aligns with their areas of interest.

The M.A. provides students with a broad and deep knowledge of the visual arts, as well as study of the basic concepts, theories, and methods of the discipline. The M.A. may be pursued as a terminal degree or as preparation for doctoral studies at KU or to apply elsewhere.

The Combined M.A./Ph.D. is a streamlined degree track intended for students who want to pursue the Ph.D. in art history at KU, but who do not yet hold the M.A. degree in art history.

The Ph.D. is intended for students who hold the M.A. degree in art history.

Students who are interested in enrolling in graduate level coursework in the Art History Department without formal admission to a graduate program at KU are encouraged to apply for non-degree seeking student status. See the department's admission webpage (http://arthistory.ku.edu/non-degree-overview-admission/) for further details.

HA 261. Introduction to Modern Art. 3 Hours HT GE3H / H.
This course considers the efforts of artists to explore and represent their place in the modern world. The political, industrial, and scientific revolutions of the late 18th and 19th centuries in the West overturned the certainties of traditional authority and liberated artists to raise new questions. Innovations ranged from Impressionism's light-filled landscapes to Surrealism's dream imagery, Abstract Expressionism's paint-splattered canvases, and Pop Art's celebration of consumer culture. This course addresses these and other modern art movements, emphasizing developments in Europe and the United States through the late 20th century and concluding with international contemporary art in an age of globalization. Intended for non-majors. LEC.

HA 300. Introduction to Western Art History. 3 Hours HT AE42/GE3H / H.
A chronological survey of Western art and architecture, including the ancient Near East, Europe from antiquity to the present, and North America from the colonial period to the present. HA 307. Directed Readings. 1-6 Hours U.
Supervised study and research into specialized areas of art history. IND.

HA 310. The Art and Architecture of Florence and Paris. 3 Hours H.
Taught in the Humanities and Western Civilization Program Abroad, this course examines the major movements that defined and shaped the art and architecture of Florence and Paris, with special attention to the Renaissance in Florence and the Gothic and modern periods in Paris. Through classroom lectures, readings, and visits to museums, churches, and other historic sites, selected works of art and architecture are analyzed in terms of their formal qualities, iconography, and cultural context. Prerequisite: Approval for enrollment in the Humanities and Western Civilization Study Abroad program through the KU Office of Study Abroad. LEC.

HA 311. The Art and Architecture of the British Isles. 3 Hours GE3H / H.
Taught in the British Summer Institute in the Humanities Study Abroad program, this course offers an introductory survey of British art and architecture. Through classroom lectures, readings, and visits to museums, churches, and other historic sites, selected works of art and architecture are analyzed in terms of their formal qualities, iconography, and cultural context. Prerequisite: Approval for enrollment in the British Summer Institute in the Humanities Study Abroad program through the KU Office of Study Abroad. LEC.

HA 315. The Prehistory of Art. 3 Hours GE3S / S.
A survey of prehistoric art focusing on the material record and interpretations of rock art (paintings, engravings on rock surfaces in rock-shelters, caves and in open air sites) and portable art created by prehistoric people. The emphasis is on the small-scale societies (hunter-gatherer and early food producers) around the world before the appearance of written records in respective geographic areas. Environmental, social and cultural contexts in which these art forms were created are discussed along with a review of past scholarship and current interpretive approaches to this old and enduring expression of human creativity. Course may be offered in lecture or online format. (Same as ANTH 315.) LEC.

HA 322. European Architecture 300-1300. 3 Hours H.
This course surveys the architecture of Western Europe from the 4th through the 14th centuries, concentrating on 750-1300. The medieval millennium was an era of constant conflict: military, diplomatic, intellectual, ideological, theological, and stylistic. Within a chronological framework, this course will examine selected works of architecture and urban design, paying special attention to the tension between architectural innovation and traditional practices. Its mission is to explore why and how these buildings and sites were produced, to understand how they communicate their patrons and makers' ideas, and to discover their audiences' responses to them. Students will consider the reinterpretation and transformation of the classical orders, the adaptation and transformation of several ancient building types, the establishment and development of architecture to serve newly emerging nation-states and religions, the evolution of vaulting, the changing conception of the wall, and the representational qualities of medieval architecture. Prerequisite: HA 100, HA 150, or the equivalent, or consent of instructor. LEC.
HA 325. Aegean Archaeology and Art. 3 Hours H/W.
An interdisciplinary survey of the major cultures of the prehistoric Aegean (Greek) world from the Neolithic period to the end of the Bronze Age (ca. 3000-1100 B.C.E.), with special emphasis on the cultural and artistic achievements of the Mycenaean, Minoans, and Cycladic islanders, including their contacts with the neighboring cultures of Anatolia (Hittites and Troy), the Levant, Egypt, and South Italy. Includes lecture with slides and discussion. This course is offered at the 300 and 500 level with additional assignments at the 500 level. Not open to students with credit in CLSX 525 or HA 525. No knowledge of Greek or Latin is required. (Same as CLSX 525.) LEC.

HA 326. Greek Archaeology and Art. 3 Hours H/W.
An interdisciplinary survey of the material culture of the ancient Greek world from the Protogeometric period to the end of the Hellenistic age (ca. 1100 - 30 B.C.E.), with emphasis on the major sites, monuments, and changing forms of social and artistic expression (e.g., architecture, sculpture, vase painting). Includes lectures with slides and discussion; use of the Wilcox Museum of Classical Antiquities. This course is offered at the 300 and 500 level with additional assignments at the 500 level. Not open to students with credit in CLSX 526 or HA 526. No knowledge of Greek or Latin is required. (Same as CLSX 326.) LEC.

HA 327. Roman Archaeology and Art. 3 Hours H/W.
An interdisciplinary survey of the material culture of ancient Rome from its origins to the late empire (8th c.B.C.E. - 4th c.C.E.). Emphasis on major sites, monuments, and changing forms of social and artistic expression, as well as on Etruscan and Greek influence on Rome and Rome's influence on its provinces. Includes lectures with slides and discussion; use of the Wilcox Museum of Classical Antiquities. This course is offered at the 300 and 500 level with additional assignments at the 500 level. Not open to students with credit in CLSX 527 or HA 527. No knowledge of Greek or Latin is required. (Same as CLSX 327.) LEC.

HA 330. Italian Renaissance Art. 3 Hours GE3H / H/W.
A survey of the art and architecture of Italy from c. 1300 to 1550. Special emphasis is placed on regional styles and the private, political, and devotional contexts in which works of art and architecture functioned. Some of the artists whose works are considered are Giotto, Duccio, Donatello, Botticelli, Leonardo, and Michelangelo. LEC.

HA 331. Northern European Art from Van Eyck to Brueghel. 3 Hours H.
This course examines Bohemian, French, Netherlands, and German art in the 14th-16th centuries in settings ranging from religious foundations to noble courts and cities. Participants in the course will consider painting, prints, sculpture, and manuscripts from the era of Jan van Eyck to that of Hieronymus Bosch and Pieter Brueghel the Elder. Prerequisite: HA 100, HA 150, or the equivalent, or consent of instructor. LEC.

HA 335. Renaissance Architecture in Italy. 3 Hours H.
This course examines the history of Italian Renaissance architecture from its origins in the 15th century to its transformation in the 16th, featuring (but not limited to) the work of three of its most celebrated exponents: Filippo Brunelleschi, Michelangelo Buonarroti, and Andrea Palladio. Students will explore how and why 15th and 16th-century architects and patrons appropriated and interpreted both ancient and medieval forms to create the architectural culture of the Renaissance. We will investigate the revival and transformation of the classical architectural language, the emerging notion of architectural authorship, the ability of architectural forms and materials to convey particular meanings to particular audiences, the deployment of architecture as an instrument of power, and the birth of architectural history and theory. The course is taught at the 300 and 500-levels with additional work required at the 500-level. Not open to students with credit in HA 535. Prerequisite: HA 100, HA 150, or the equivalent, or consent of instructor. LEC.

HA 340. Special Study in Asian Art Before 1900: _______. 1-6 Hours H.
This course is designed for the study of special topics in Asian art before 1900, including courses taken through study abroad. May be repeated for credit if content varies. The course is taught at the 300 and 500-levels with additional work required at the 500-level. Same topic may not be taken at both the 300 and 500-levels. LEC.

HA 342. Special Study in 18th/19th-Century European or American Art: _______. 1-6 Hours H.
This course is designed for the study of special topics in European or American art of the 18th and/or 19th centuries, including courses taken through study abroad. May be repeated for credit if content varies. The course is taught at the 300 and 500-levels with additional work required at the 500-level. Same topic may not be taken at both the 300 and 500-levels. LEC.

HA 343. Special Study in 20th/21st-Century Art: _______. 1-6 Hours H.
This course is designed for the study of special topics in art of the 20th and/or 21st centuries, including courses taken through study abroad. May be repeated for credit if content varies. The course is taught at the 300 and 500-levels with additional work required at the 500-level. Same topic may not be taken at both the 300 and 500-levels. LEC.

HA 344. Manga: Histories and Theories. 3 Hours H.
Manga (Japanese comics) have long been an extremely popular and influential medium in Japan and internationally. Manga offer engaging narratives and visual imagery revealing central concerns not only of Japanese culture, history, society and politics, but also of the global cultural industry. The medium has been studied through various disciplinary lenses ranging from art history to visual culture and media studies, literature, sociology, and anthropology. Through the examination of several manga artists and works from the late 19th century to the present as well as reading a broad range of scholarship, this course explores the major issues addressed and theoretical approaches used in the interdisciplinary study of manga. The course is taught at the 300 and 500-levels with additional work required at the 500-level. Not open to students with credit in HA 544. LEC.

HA 353. Modern and Contemporary African Art. 3 Hours H.
In this course, we examine the development of artistic modernisms in Africa in historical context. We also study the content, production, patronage, and display of modern and contemporary African art. In doing so, we consider African artists' engagement with modernity, globalization, and contemporary issues, as well as interrogate influential myths and assumptions regarding African artists and the work they produce. Course themes include the workshop as a critical site, independence movements and the creation of national art forms, art as global commodity, and art in resistance, remembrance, and revolution. Not open to students with credit in AAAS 569/HA 569. (Same as AAAS 353.) LEC.

HA 354. Japanese Prints. 3 Hours NW / H/W.
This course explores the history of Japanese prints with special emphasis on ukiyo-e (pictures of the floating world) woodblock prints made during the Edo Period (early 17th to 19th century). The course is organized thematically as well as chronologically and examines woodblock prints by focusing on both design and socio-political history. The course is taught at the 300 and 500-levels with additional work required at the 500-level. LEC.

HA 361. Buddhist Art of Korea. 3 Hours H.
Introduction to the history of Buddhist temple buildings, paintings, sculptures and illuminated hand-scrolls in Korea from the 4th through the 19th centuries, with special emphasis on their stylistic, geographical, social, devotional and literary contexts. Current theories and controversies pertinent to the history and study of Korean Buddhist art are also addressed. HA 370. American Art. 3 Hours H.
A survey of American painting, sculpture, and architecture from colonial to recent times. Prerequisite: HA 100, HA 151, or the equivalent, or consent of instructor. LEC.

HA 371. Modern Sculpture. 3 Hours H.
Since the 1870s, modern sculptors have dramatically transformed their medium, pioneering new forms of figuration and abstraction, investigating new materials and processes, and developing installation and site-specific art. With a focus on Europe and the U.S. through the 1980s, expanding to global trends of recent decades, this course examines how this happened, considering the work of major artists from Rodin, Matisse, Picasso, and Brancusi to Donald Judd, Eva Hesse, Anish Kapoor, Jeff Koons, and David Hammons. This course is offered at the 300 and 500 level with additional assignments at the 500 level. Not open to students with credit in HA 571. Prerequisite: HA 100, HA 151, or the equivalent, or consent of instructor. LEC.

HA 372. Baroque Art in Europe. 3 Hours H.
This course surveys significant 17th-century paintings, sculpture and architecture that were produced in Italy, Spain, France and the Southern and Northern Netherlands. Artists whose works are discussed include Caravaggio, Bernini, Velazquez, Rubens, Rembrandt and Vermeer. Artistic elements of individual works, major changes in patronage, and the religious, political, economic and cultural contexts in which the art was produced are examined. Assigned readings present a range of methodological perspectives. LEC.

HA 376. West African Art. 3 Hours NW / H/W.
Introduction to the rich visual art traditions of West Africa. Emphasis is given to the major art-producing cultures of the Western Sudan and the Guinea Coast, including the pre-historic cultures of Nigeria, Mali, and Ghana. The diverse forms of figure sculptures and masquerade performance and meanings of these arts in historical and cultural contexts are examined. (Same as AAAS 376.) LEC.

HA 377. African Design. 3 Hours H/W.
This course examines the conceptualization of the "decorative" arts in Africa, including textiles, metals, ceramics, wall decoration, and jewelry, and investigates the relation of this art historical category to modernism. How did such a wide range of artistic practices come to be grouped together? Are terms such as "decorative art" and "craft" still operative, and how do they reflect ideas about race and gender? How have African artists approached "traditional" design? What social factors influenced artistic processes and what is the historical symbolism of medium? To address these questions, we will consider artists' writings, art schools and apprenticeships, gender dynamics, transnational artistic exchanges, the concept of the artist-artisan, and the meaning of material and process. Our discussions will span historical and contemporary contexts, and also will examine colonial systems of classification, gender norms and laws, practices of appropriation, and tourism. Not open to students with credit in AAAS 677/HA 677. (Same as AAAS 377.) Prerequisite: AAAS 376 or HA 376, or AAAS 578 or HA 578, or an Art History course 100 level or above, or consent of instructor. LEC.

HA 380. History of Photography. 3 Hours H.
An introduction to the history of photography. We will consider strategies used over its history to make photography an art, a witness to truth, a record of fact, a purveyor of falsehoods, a mass medium, a hawker of goods and ideologies, an agent of political change, a means of remembrance, and more. Not open to students with credit in HA 580. Prerequisite: HA 100, HA 151, or the equivalent, or consent of instructor. LEC.

HA 385. The Art of Buddhism. 3 Hours H/W.
A survey of Buddhist visual arts (architecture, sculpture, and painting) of India, China, Japan, and Korea. Through an examination of the history of Buddhist art interpreted from visual, historical, social, and political perspectives, the course enables students to analyze a wide range of Buddhist art forms within their regional contexts. Students will also consider how Buddhist-related material functions within museums and engage with local collections. The course is taught at the 300 and 500-levels with additional work required at the 500-level. Not open to students with credit in HA 585. LEC.

HA 388. Modern and Contemporary Visual Arts of Japan. 3 Hours H.
This course covers Japanese visual arts from the Meiji era (1868-1912) through the present day. The course is designed thematically as well as chronologically, and examines painting, sculpture and architecture focusing on both socio-political contexts and artistic concerns that emerged at certain times in recent Japanese history. The aim of this course is to provide first-hand knowledge of Japanese modern and contemporary visual arts as well as an in-depth consideration of some of the key issues attached to Japan's modernization and modernity. The course is taught at the 300 and 500-levels with additional work required at the 500-level. LEC.

HA 677. African Design. 3 Hours NW / H/W.
This course examines the conceptualization of the "decorative" arts in Africa, including textiles, metals, ceramics, wall decoration, and jewelry, and investigates the relation of this art historical category to modernism. How did such a wide range of artistic practices come to be grouped together? Are terms such as "decorative art" and "craft" still operative, and how do they reflect ideas about race and gender? How have African artists approached "traditional" design? What social factors influenced artistic processes and what is the historical symbolism of medium? To address these questions, we will consider artists' writings, art schools and apprenticeships, gender dynamics, transnational artistic exchanges, the concept of the artist-artisan, and the meaning of material and process. Our discussions will span historical and contemporary contexts, and also will examine colonial systems of classification, gender norms and laws, practices of appropriation, and tourism. Not open to students with credit in AAAS 377/HA 377. (Same as AAAS 677.) Prerequisite: AAAS 376 or HA 376, or AAAS 578 or HA 578, or an Art History course 100 level or above, or consent of instructor. LEC.
