

Undergraduate Certificate in Leadership Strategies and Applications

The Leadership Strategies and Applications Certificate introduces the principles of effective and ethical leadership through the Adaptive Leadership paradigm. Students will explore leadership tools and processes, a variety of perspectives of ethical decision making and behavior, strategies for effective interpersonal communication and conflict management, and online communication theories and practices.

Code	Title	Hours
------	-------	-------

Students will complete 12 credits via five 8-week minimester courses across a minimum of two academic semesters.

Required Courses:

LDST 201 & LDST 202 or LDST 200	Introduction to Leadership and Introduction to Leadership Applications Introduction to Leadership Studies and Applications	3
COMS 310	Advanced Organizational and Professional Communication	3
LDST 420	Communication, Leadership, and Conflict Management	3
LDST 520	Leadership Ethics	3