Department of Spanish and Portuguese

Why study Spanish and Portuguese?
Because fluency in more than one language and culture and analytical understandings of literary and cultural texts create educated citizens.

Undergraduate Programs
The department offers course work for students seeking proficiency in a foreign language and for majors in Spanish or a related field.

Placement
Students who have not studied Spanish in high school should seek permission to enroll in SPAN 104. For permission to enroll in this course, a student must show his or her high school transcript to the advising specialist in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese. Students who have had limited study of Spanish (1 to 3 years in high school or 1 semester of Spanish at another institution of higher learning, equivalent to SPAN 104) and are not placed in the intermediate level should enroll in SPAN 111. Only students who complete SPAN 104 at KU are eligible to enroll in SPAN 108.

Students with 2 to 4 years of high school Spanish can be placed in the intermediate level (SPAN 212, SPAN 216, SPAN 220, or SPAN 324) by taking the placement examination and consulting the advising specialist.

Students registered with Disability Resources (http://www.disability.ku.edu/) should contact them for placement advising.

Retroactive Credit
Students with no prior college or university Spanish course credit are eligible for retroactive credit according to this formula:

Students who complete their graduate studies with the M.A. degree are well prepared to enter a variety of fields, including international business, teaching, and government. The Ph.D. program takes advantage of the literature specialties of the faculty, and Ph.D. recipients generally go on to university or college teaching.

A detailed description is available from the departmental office as well as the department's website (http://www2.ku.edu/~spanport/). This includes specific distribution requirements, fields of specialization, and information on the comprehensive examinations. Students should request information and application forms as early as possible, especially if they plan to apply for financial aid.
