Department of Spanish and Portuguese

Why study Spanish and Portuguese?
Because fluency in more than one language and culture and analytical understandings of literary and cultural texts create educated citizens.

Undergraduate Programs
The department offers course work for students seeking proficiency in a foreign language and for majors in Spanish or a related field.

Placement
Students who have not studied Spanish in high school should seek permission to enroll in SPAN 104. For permission to enroll in this course, a student must show his or her high school transcript to the advising specialist in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese. Students who have had limited study of Spanish (1 to 3 years in high school or 1 semester of Spanish at another institution of higher learning, equivalent to SPAN 104) and are not placed in the intermediate level should enroll in SPAN 111. Only students who complete SPAN 104 at KU are eligible to enroll in SPAN 108.

Students with 2 to 4 years of high school Spanish can be placed in the intermediate level (SPAN 212, SPAN 216, SPAN 220, or SPAN 324) by taking the placement examination and consulting the advising specialist.

Students registered with Disability Resources (http://www.disability.ku.edu) should contact them for placement advising.

Retroactive Credit
Students with no prior college or university Spanish course credit are eligible for retroactive credit according to this formula:

1. 3 hours of retroactive credit are awarded to a student who enrolls initially at KU in a third-level Spanish course (SPAN 212) and receives a grade of C or higher.
2. 6 hours of retroactive credit are awarded to a student who enrolls initially at KU in a fourth-level Spanish course (SPAN 216) and receives a grade of C or higher.
3. 9 hours of retroactive credit are awarded to a student who enrolls initially at KU in a 3-credit-hour Spanish course with a fourth-level course as a prerequisite and receives a grade of C or higher.

Students interested in retroactive credit should consult the department before enrolling.

Students entering KU with previous study of Portuguese should take the Portuguese placement examination administered by the department.

Courses for Nonmajors
Students may fulfill the College foreign language requirement by
1. Passing the proficiency examination or
2. Completing SPAN 216 or PORT 216 or
3. Completing a course in Spanish or Portuguese that has SPAN 216 or PORT 216 as a prerequisite.

Graduate Programs
The department offers a full graduate program leading to the M.A. and the Ph.D. degrees. Students who complete their graduate studies with the M.A. degree are well prepared to enter a variety of fields, including international business, teaching, and government. The Ph.D. program takes advantage of the literature specialties of the faculty, and Ph.D. recipients generally go on to university or college teaching.

A detailed description is available from the departmental office as well as the department's website (http://www2.ku.edu/~spanport). This includes specific distribution requirements, fields of specialization, and information on the comprehensive examinations. Students should request information and application forms as early as possible, especially if they plan to apply for financial aid.

LEC.

PORT 347. Brazilian Studies: ____. 3 Hours H / FP.
A topics course dedicated to the study of special historical moments, authors, or themes in Brazilian literary and cultural history. Topics studied always lead to an examination of Brazilian culture and society through the critical study of literature, film, and music, in contrast with aspects of U.S. culture or other Latin American societies. Although the course may cover multiple genres and periods, it always emphasizes the plurality of Brazilian people, its history of slavery and immigration, diverse ethnic composition, rich religious milieu, and complex class system. Students also discuss the differences between the geographical regions in the country, and discuss controversial topics such as racism and religion.
Given the historical similarities between the two societies, students must confront the experiences they learn about in Brazil to similar ones in the United States. Course conducted in Portuguese and may be repeated for
