

Minor in Operations Management

The minor in Operations Management explores the technical and strategic aspects of producing goods and services while providing students with the foundational operations management skills necessary to work in career fields such as supply chain management, production management, purchasing, project management or other related areas. To declare a minor in Operations Management a student must have a minimum 2.0 cumulative KU GPA and be degree seeking.

Code	Title	Hours
Required courses - 15 credits
OMGT 300	Operations Management	3
OMGT 310	Enterprise Strategy and Innovation	3
OMGT 320	Enterprise Integration and Implementation for Managing Organizational Supply Chains	3
OMGT 330	Innovation Management	3
OMGT 440	Ethical Issues in Operations Management	3
Elective Course - 3 credits (1 of the following)
OMGT 420	Process Management	3
OMGT 434	Managing People and Personalities	3
OMGT 436	Applied Big Data Analytics in Operations Management	3
OMGT 438	Service Management in Operations	3